

Namibian Youth Chamber of Environment (NYCE)

CODE OF CONDUCT

As a member of the NYCE, I commit to upholding the highest standards of integrity, professionalism and dedication to environmental conservation and sustainable development in Namibia.

I, the undersigned [Full Name]: _____

consequently commit myself to –

1. conduct all activities relating to NYCE with transparency, honesty and free from misrepresentation or deliberate bias;
2. embrace and respect the diverse cultural backgrounds and socio-economic levels within Namibia, ensuring non-discriminatory participation in all NYCE activities;
3. take responsibility for actions and decisions I undertake as a member of NYCE, ensuring they align with NYCE's mission and values;
4. report any misconduct or breaches of this code promptly and appropriately;
5. adhere to the membership points system by honestly reporting points-earning activities;
6. refrain from actions that could harm the reputation or prospects of fellow members and address disagreements constructively;
7. adhere to the provisions of the NYCE Constitution and bylaws in all activities and representations related to NYCE;
8. acknowledge that violations of this code may result in disciplinary actions, including termination of NYCE membership, as determined by the National Executive Council.

By signing this Code of Conduct, I affirm my commitment to these principles and to the mission of NYCE.
